

Why Study in Switzerland ?

Multiculturalism

Switzerland is a multicultural and multilingual country, which is also home to many international organizations and multinational companies. Swiss universities enjoying the influx of many international students every year.

High Quality Study Programs

Programs offered are unique and has a holistic approach. Students have a remarkable opportunity to learn the academic business side and as well master the practical operational skills which will lead them to understand the journey to building a successful career in the hospitality industry.

Postcard Perfect

Ski or mountain bike on the iconic Swiss Alps, cow-dotted pastures, wakeboard on the serene blue lakes all offer a breath-taking scenic backdrop for your student academic life.

Birthplace of Hospitality Management

Switzerland enjoys a long tradition of education in hospitality and has a great reputation for educational excellence. Guests demanded the highest levels of service excellence and the leading Swiss Hoteliers Worldwide responded by providing the best Hospitality entities. Study in Switzerland earns you the enviable reputation Switzerland has to offer in the Hospitality, Tourism and Hotel Industry.

Home of Luxury Watches

It is a well-known fact that Swiss watches dominate the Watchmaking industry. These watches are an excellent combination of both aesthetics, technology & design.

Chocolate, Cheese and Wine

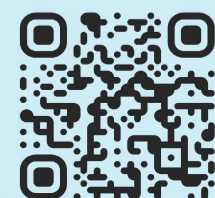

Swiss people consume the most chocolates per capita in the World. Each Swiss eats an average of 23 lbs. of chocolate yearly, compared to the 11.7 lbs consumed by each American. Switzerland is home to 450 types of Cheese!

High Quality of Life

Switzerland is one of the safest destination for education and is the cleanest country in the World.

Heart of Europe

Easy travel by train and short flights to Austria, Italy, France, Germany and many other European countries. A haven for students to travel and to be immersed in diverse cultures.

Contact Us

+60 19 338 2852
+60 13 368 7708
@Suisseedu

