Accommodation

First City UC offers student accommodation in its own managed on-campus hostel. Room allocation is based on availability and first-come-first-served basis.

The location of the accommodation is close to major shopping malls, hotels, convenience centres, and food courts for the convenience of the students. Students are secured and safe in the hostel with the use of the card access system and the availability of the round-the-clock watch. Students also have easy access to transportation with the availability of bus terminals, Mass Rapid Transit (MRT) and shuttle services.

The Hostel is located within First City UC campus. Single and twin sharing rooms are available in the Hostel, both with attached bathrooms. Each tenant will be provided with a bed, mattress, study table, chair, locker and side table. Cooking is not permitted in the Hostel.
